1) Value about belief in Islam; Muslim students have a tight bond with Islam religion. For them, Islam is not just a religion, yet it is the whole life and soul. They regard it as a fundamental of living and well-being. These students, therefore, comply strictly to the Islamic principal which includes faith and morale as following:

(1) The value reflecting faith; peace and fate such as Maisarah which means comfortableness and Zuhaira which means peaceful.
(2) Faith in prophets or people related with him; Such as Muhammad (Nabi’s name) Abdullah (son Allo)
(3) Knowledge and ability such as Afgoh (Wiseperson) Padeela (Excellent)
(4) Stability, honesty and faith such as Iman (faith person)

2) Value in terms of relative origins and family; Thai Muslim take this matter serious although it is slightly deteriorated these days. The names beginning with Je, Ni, Wan and Whan are derived from Melayu. It is an honorable name inheriting the state’s governor in the past such as Nipadilah and Je Abdulloh.

3) Value represents relationship with nature and environment as following:

(1) Place such as TeraMiZi (the name of city) Zarohna (the name of village)
(2) Animal such as Sakulnee (bird)
(3) Plant such as Rossalan (Rice: the main food of Thais)
(4) Phenomenon such as Zamhiyah (the Sun) Dariyah (the light on the sky)

The above value obviously reflects traditional lifestyles, cultures, identity and how university students live.

IV. DISCUSSION

It can be inferred that the value behind the name of Muslim students are not different from other race of Thais which include the value of relationship among family and relatives, origins, the value regards relationship between people and nature and environment, the value about morale. However, the value that best reflects Muslim’s identity is the value about the belief in Islam. Thai Muslim believes that Islam is their lives and the fundamental of living. Fellow who conform to the Muslim’s principal will definitely become happy. The merit from behaving well will bring virtue to their family. The deep faith together with abiding love of Muslim is consequently presented in the name of their descendants. The value representing relationship of family and origins reflects the connection of family unit. It is the connection that beyond the rule of religion. The value about environment and nature reveals their perception about the importance of surrounding toward their lives [5], [6].

V. CONCLUSION

The study “The name of Muslim Thai students: The Reflection of value and uniqueness of Muslim Thai” is conducted on the purpose of studying the meaning, value and identity reflected from Muslim students’ name. The study results state as following

A. The Meaning Used in Naming

The study result states that all things fortunate are obtained to name the person, not only abstract idea but also concrete objects. The most common belongs to the meaning about merit and virtue, followed by the meaning of the prophet’s name and the meaning about dignity, light, flowers or plants whereas the meaning regarding place, animal, number and relationship are deployed the least frequently. When considering from variable; gender, the principal of naming in female and male presents the significant difference as illustrated below

Male: the name of prophet; Nabi Muhammed> merit, beauty, dignity> origins or family
Female: merit, beauty > cleanliness, peace > light and flowers.

B. Value in Naming

The value that is reflected from the meaning of Muslim name can be categorized into four types; (1) The value about the belief in Islam (2) The value about morale (3) The value about family relationship and (4) The value about the relationship with nature and environment.

It is true to conclude that name is the vital factor that reflects the value, society and uniqueness of Thai Muslim.
